Subject: New Procedure for Signing up for Listserv

There is a new procedure for signing up for the Office's Prescribed Product Listserv. If you are already on the listserv you need not take any action. In the future, however, you can subscribe to or unsubscribe from the list serve at the following web address:

<http://list.state.vt.us/guest/RemoteListSummary/VermontPrescribedProductsLaw>.

The Office's webpage and the 2015 Guide have been amended to reflect this change.
